Part B.

To conclude the lesson, draw conclusions about the actions of President Truman, General MacArthur, and the United Nations by responding to the following questions. In each case, be sure to explain your reasoning.

1. What was the role of the United Nations in Korea?

2. Was the United Nations justified in attacking North Korea?

3. Was Truman right in firing MacArthur?

4. Was MacArthur a patriot or a rebel?

5. Did he try to usurp presidential prerogative?

6. Whose strategy was better, the president's or the general's?

7. Should the United Nations chalk up the experience in Korea as a victory?
